

THE BRIERY - PART TIME COOK

Job Outline

The Briery Retreat & Conference Centre is a residential retreat house offering a wide programme of retreats throughout the year to a range of guests.

The Cook will be responsible to and report to our Head Cook as well as the Briery Director and will work as part of a team. As well as cooking and preparing meals on some occasions they will help serve, wash up, clear and clean the kitchen and other duties as specified by our Head Cook. Numbers for catering vary from day-to-day from individuals or small groups of 3 or 4 to groups of up to 50. We cater for vegetarians, vegans, gluten free and other special diets.

The Cook must ensure the kitchen meets governmental health standards and ensure all food safety guidelines and hygiene standards are met and maintained. The Briery has always maintained and been awarded the highest level in hygiene status.

This post is 12 hours per week, 2 shifts with 6 hours shifts, sometimes day or early evening. Holiday cover for other members of the team is required. Weekend work is frequently required as well as some Bank Holidays. Christmas and Easter are holiday periods. Notice of working hours is issued in advance.

The Briery is a pleasant working environment and emphasis is on working as a team.

A good rate of pay accompanies excellent working conditions.

The position has a three month probationary period during which notice can be given by either party with a week's notice.

If you wish to apply for this position please send a full CV to The Briery Retreat Centre, 38 Victoria Avenue, Ilkley, LS29 9BW together with two references (one work, one personal). For further information please call the Administrators on 01943 607287 or email: briery@btconnect.com.

